

DEFINITION: Two copies are read-equivalent iff they traverse the same paths through the VG.

THEOREM 1: Members of one equivalence class cannot be distinguished by any read whose evidence is in $V(G) \cup E(G)$.

CONSEQUENCE: The equivalence class is the minimum unit of resolution – a hard floor set by the VG. Threshold tunes the floor.

